

Salem Drive School

Week of Respect Activities Oct. 3-7, 2016

Monday - 10/3/16 - School Closed

Tuesday - 10/4/16 - Students will wear YELLOW for the Character Education Theme of RESPECT. Students are asked to remember the "Golden Rule" -- treat others as you would like to be treated. Also, the song "RESPECT" by Aretha Franklin will play during morning announcements. Students are encouraged to sing along and dance.

Wednesday - 10/5/16 - Character Education Lessons Begin

Thursday - 10/6/16 - "Day of Tolerance" -- Classes will be scheduled for a character education lesson with Mrs. Jacobson in the morning. A story will be read to the students about Tolerance/Respect. Kindergarten will be paired with Fifth grade, First grade will be paired with Fourth grade, and Second grade will be paired with Third grade to work on a RESPECT project with their partners. The theme will be "Good Character Is Our Super Power." Students will work together to create a super hero shield showing respect for others and/or ways to stand up to bullies. Students' work will be displayed in the hallways.

Friday - 10/7/16 - "Arms Around Salem Drive" Students and staff will form a circle in the front of the school and sing the character education song and school song. Show off your school pride and wear your Salem Drive colors!

Respect quotes will be announced daily during morning announcements.

Please note: A character education assembly program sponsored by the Salem Drive School PTA will "kick off" our Week of Respect activities. Mobile Ed Productions will present "The No Bully Zone Game Show" on Tuesday, September 27, 2016 in the SDS All-Purpose Room. Students in Grades K-2 will attend at 9:30 a.m. and Grades 3-5 will attend at 10:30 a.m.
